7. Involvement in Children’s Out of Home Care and Children’s Care Institutions

To ensure continued community and public confidence in the services provided by RASA, you are required to be aware of any actual, perceived and potential conflicts of interest. This includes the need to:

- Avoid real or apparent conflicts of interest and conduct yourself in your private capacities in a manner that will not reflect seriously and/or adversely on RASA.
- Be open and honest regarding any concerns you might have which may involve a conflict of interest.
- Not use your position to further either your own interests or the interests of friends or relatives.
- Declare any involvement with past or current providers of adoption services and/or providers of institutional or Out of Home Care services.

Conflicts of Interest (actual, perceived and potential) may occur in many forms, for example:

- Conflict with financial interests (e.g. directorships, share holdings, real estate or trusts, gifts, and hospitality).
- Conflict with personal interests (e.g. sporting, social or cultural activities as well as family, sexual, neighbour or other relationships, having been a client of RASA).
- Using information or position (e.g. improperly using RASA information to gain financially).
- Association with providers of institutional or Out of Home Care services (e.g. foster care, respite care, residential care) and providers of adoption services.
